++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Breezy and damp overnight. Becoming brighter but colder again Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Breezy and damp overnight, with spells of rain and drizzle, perhaps also some sleet or snow in the Peak District later. Temperatures falling away in late clear spells spreading southwards around dawn, giving a risk of icy patches and frost. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Tuesday:
A damp start in places, however patchy rain and hill snow should soon clear southwards to leave fine but cold conditions as winter sunshine breaks through into the afternoon. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday starting cold and crisp, but rain edging eastwards. This rain perhaps turning to snow on hills, before easing through Thursday. Friday then drier, with a risk of freezing fog.
